

Congress of the United States
House of Representatives

March 16, 2020

The Honorable Steven Mnuchin
Secretary
U.S. Department of the Treasury
1500 Pennsylvania Ave NW
Washington, DC 20220

Dear Secretary Mnuchin,

I appreciate your hard work and commitment to addressing the COVID-19 outbreak. I am writing to encourage you extend the tax filing deadline and provide additional clarity on tax relief proposals from the President as the federal response continues.

We are facing a public health challenge our country is unfamiliar with, but we have faced challenges before and answered the call. We must continue to act to protect the public's health.

On March 11, 2020, President Trump announced an extended tax filing season for certain individuals and businesses impacted by the coronavirus. On March 13, 2020, the President declared a national emergency which would allow him to extend the tax filing season for all individuals and businesses.

As you know, social distancing can result in loss of access to tax preparation services. Extending the tax filing deadline will provide taxpayers with peace of mind as we continue to work together to address this crisis. I urge you to extend the tax filing deadline for all taxpayers and provide additional guidance for proposals to increase flexibility for quarterly payments. I thank you for your attention to this matter.

Sincerely,
